Structure, Governance and Management

Type of Governing document

Constitution of a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (the CIO) who's only voting members are its charity trustees (Foundation Model Constitution). The constitution was adopted on October 15, 2015.

How the Charity is constituted

A group of 8 Charity Board Trustees, who are supported by around 50 Friends of Jan Swasthya Sahyog in UK (FOJSS in UK). Our charity was entered on the English Register of Charities on 27 November 2015.

Trustee Selection Methods

Trustees are appointed or reappointed by advertising at the 'FOJSS in UK' charity meetings which are held regularly. The appointees are from the Friends of JSS in UK, most of who are NHS doctors and are passionate about our charity work and possess relevant interest and experience. All the Trustees are Consultant physicians or Surgeons and have undergone Criminal records Bureau check before appointment and at regular intervals in line with then statutory requirements. All Trustees give their time voluntarily and receive no remuneration or other benefits from the charity. They have read and accept the Trustee guidelines issued by the charity commission.

Organisational Structure and decision making

Day to day issues concerning our charity is managed by a small working group of Charity Secretary, Treasurer and the Chair. Any such decisions are further ratified in the FOJSS UK Trustee board meetings. Major policy decisions are made by consensus at the Trustee board meetings which are held regularly. Correspondence between Trustees is by phone and e-mails.

Risk management

The Trustees have given consideration to the major risks to which the charity is exposed and confirm that systems are in place to mitigate those risks. The risks are re-assessed regularly and when circumstances dictate.

Jan Swasthya Sahyog (JSS) JSS (translated as people's health cooperative) is a unique charitable NGO running a comprehensive rural health programme in parts of impoverished central India. The movement was started more than 18 years ago by a group of like-minded doctors to improve the health care of rural India. The organisation has been recognised nationally and overseas for its sterling work in the field of low cost health care. Friends of JSS in UK is a group of 3 such friendly but independent associations (Friends of JSS USA and Friends of JSS Germany) who support JSS.

Achievements and performance for the year ending 5 April 2020

Fund Raising events

During this period fund raising events were organised by the Friends of JSS in UK to support the various health related projects at the JSS hospital in Bilaspur.

June 2019

On 9th of June 2019, FOJSS in UK organised its 6th Annual meeting at Bromley, London. The meeting was well attended by FOJSS UK members. The meeting was kindly hosted by Dr Sunil Gupta and Dr Meenal Gupta at their residence. The event was preceded by a video demonstration on The 'Art of Living' and Yoga demonstration by instructors from the 'Esha Foundation'. The Friends of JSS enjoyed the presentation and actively participated in the Yoga session. This was followed by an excellent meal and the AGM kindly hosted by the Gupta's at the same venue. Friends were given a copy of 'Atlas of Rural Health' published by JSS Bilaspur. Valuable cash donations were raised for the 'FOJSS in UK' to support its various health related programmes. Friends are grateful to the host for their kind generosity. Detailed report and minutes of the AGM are appended on our website.

October 2019

On 20th October 2019, FOJSS (UK) celebrated Diwali at their 'Diwali Mela - A Musical Evening & Charity event' at the Woodside Hall in Hitchin, Hertfordshire. The event was very well attended and heavily enjoyed by the Friends of JSS in UK.

Dr Alok Prasad and Dr Samick Sofat who had previously worked at the JSS Bilaspur made a small presentation highlighting the excellent community health programs undertaken by the JSS in tribal villages of Chattisgarh, India. This was followed by an evening of Bollywood dance and music and an excellent dinner. FOJSS in UK is grateful to all the colleagues and friends for their enthusiastic participation and valuable donation to our charity. The funds will be used to support the surgical training program at JSS Bilaspur. Detailed report is appended on our charity website.

Your charity also receives funding from various UK friends through monthly direct debits. Our cost of delivering aid to JSS remains less than 3% of our income.

Education and Training

Unfortunately the planned trustee visit to FOJSS Bilaspur was cancelled due to ongoing Covid -19 crisis. This has not affected our support for various health related programmes which continues as planned.

Achievements and performance for the year ending 5 April 2020 (continued)

Promoting health care volunteering at JSS

FOJSS UK continues to encourage and facilitate volunteering at JSS by UK medical students. No UK medical students visited JSS in the year 2019-20.

Other health related voluntary programme/activities

Currently FOJSS in UK is supporting setting up of post-graduate training program in Surgery and essential equipment purchase at the JSS base Hospital, Bilaspur, India. The support includes a direct financial grant for the salary of Surgical Registrars, appointing an extra Consultant General Surgeon as per the requirements of DNBE program and purchase of Laparoscopic stack and instruments. The proposal on Surgical Training program proposal was submitted by the JSS Bilaspur and approved by the FOJSS UK board in June 2019. The details of the training project are appended to our website (www.fojss.org.uk).

The project has been running for almost a year now. Two first year surgical trainees under the DNBE training program and an additional surgical consultant have been appointed. A detailed progress report for the 2019-20 is appended to our website.
